

Photo: Marcia Cross

Even Marcia Cross Has A Silver Lining Around Her Cloud

des Photos.

www.Arts/People.fr/Marcia_Cross

November 3rd, 2006 at 5:17 pm

Vivid Nature Photographs

Who would have thought that a document destruction company would have such a warm heart? ShredStation has announced it has offered "Desperate Housewife" Marcia Cross a lifetime of free shredding after David Hans Schmidt got his hands on her tax returns and more than 200 personal photos of the actress from her garbage. The company is also offering every publicist's office in Los Angeles a free ShredStation vault and one year of free service.

"We all know how likely ID theft has become -California has is the 3rd worst state- but personal privacy is harder to quantify. Celebrities like Marcia are at even higher risk because of their place in the public eye. We are happy to bring ShredStation vaults to Hollywood to help protect celebrity privacy."

Click here to return to the home page.